Mr. Benjamin Evans
Executive Secretary
Central Intelligence Agency

State Dept. review completed

Dear Mr. Evans:

Under a new format the Department, in coordination with the National Security Council and other agencies, revised and updated the statements of U.S. goals and objectives for those countries and organizations where we have official representation. The goals focused on priority issues facing our missions over the next two years. We also prepared short summaries of reports from the Ambassadors on steps they were taking to implement their goals and objectives.

I am forwarding to you a complete set of Ambassador's Goals and Implementation Plan statements. These papers are also being distributed to other bureaus in the Department and other agencies in Washington.

The goals papers have already provided a basis for planning and a focus for U.S. government efforts in specific countries and regions. The President continues to request that an updated copy of the goals and objectives paper be included in his briefing materials for visits by foreign leaders and his trips abroad. Periodic preparation and revision of these goals statements on an interagency basis will therefore be a continuing process. We appreciate the contributions you have made and will continue to work closely with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Peter Tarnoff
Executive Secretary
